

Presidents that Encouraged the United States to Practice Isolationism - Quiz

To view the article that this quiz is based on, please go to:

<https://constitutionus.com/presidents/presidents-that-encouraged-the-united-states-to-practice-isolationism/>

Q1. What is isolationism?

- A. A policy of not engaging in the affairs of other nations
- B. A policy of forming multiple international alliances
- C. A strategy to dominate global trade
- D. A method of increasing military presence worldwide

Q2. Which U.S. president emphasized non-involvement in Asian and European politics?

- A. Abraham Lincoln
- B. George Washington
- C. Thomas Jefferson
- D. John Adams

Q3. What event caused President Woodrow Wilson to change his foreign policy?

- A. The sinking of a British ocean liner by a German submarine
- B. The Great Depression
- C. The election of a new Congress
- D. A natural disaster in Europe

Q4. What term did President Donald Trump use to describe his isolationist ideology?

- A. Global Leader
- B. World First
- C. America First
- D. United We Stand

Q5. Why did the U.S. temporarily loosen its isolation policy during World War I?

- A. To promote global democracy
- B. To annex European territories
- C. To avoid economic collapse
- D. To form a new world government

Q6. What major event pushed U.S. public policy towards isolationism in the 1930s?

- A. The Great Depression
- B. The Civil Rights Movement
- C. The Cold War
- D. The Industrial Revolution

Q7. What was a key belief of isolationists?

- A. The nation should focus on internal advancement
- B. The nation should lead global military efforts
- C. The nation should control international trade
- D. The nation should form permanent alliances

Q8. Which war led to the rebirth of American isolationism in the 21st century?

- A. The Vietnam War
- B. The War on Terror
- C. The Korean War
- D. The Gulf War

Q9. What did President Woodrow Wilson initially encourage during World War I?

- A. Neutrality
- B. Military intervention
- C. Economic sanctions
- D. Diplomatic alliances

Q10. What was a consequence of isolationism after World War I?

- A. Internal development and growth
- B. Increased global influence
- C. Expansion of military bases
- D. Formation of new international treaties

Answer Key

1. Q1: A
2. Q2: B
3. Q3: A
4. Q4: C
5. Q5: A
6. Q6: A
7. Q7: A
8. Q8: B
9. Q9: A
10. Q10: A