

Understand the Charges of Second Degree Manslaughter - Quiz

To view the article that this quiz is based on, please go to: <https://constitutionus.com/law/what-is-second-degree-manslaughter/>

Q1. What is manslaughter generally defined as?

- A. The act of killing someone with deliberate intention
- B. The act of provoking the death of another person without deliberate intention
- C. A premeditated murder
- D. A crime only applicable in certain states

Q2. What is voluntary manslaughter?

- A. Killing someone in self-defense
- B. Killing someone with premeditation
- C. Killing after observing an act of sexual marital infidelity
- D. Killing due to negligence

Q3. What is another term for involuntary manslaughter in New York State?

- A. First-degree manslaughter
- B. Vehicular manslaughter
- C. Manslaughter in the second degree
- D. Criminal negligence

Q4. Which of the following is an example of involuntary manslaughter?

- A. A drunk driver killing a pedestrian
- B. A premeditated murder
- C. Killing in self-defense
- D. Killing during a robbery

Q5. What is a key difference between recklessness and negligence?

- A. Recklessness involves intent, negligence does not
- B. Negligence involves intent, recklessness does not
- C. Recklessness involves conscious disregard of risk, negligence involves failure to fulfill a duty
- D. Negligence is always criminal, recklessness is not

Q6. Which of the following is an aggravating factor in manslaughter cases?

- A. Little or no criminal history
- B. The victim was a minor
- C. Display of genuine remorse
- D. Willingness to reform

Q7. What is a mitigating factor in manslaughter cases?

- A. An extensive criminal history
- B. Reckless behavior
- C. Mental or physical illness connected to the event
- D. The victim being a law enforcement agent

Q8. What is vehicular manslaughter?

- A. Killing someone with a vehicle intentionally
- B. Killing someone in a vehicle accident due to reckless driving
- C. A type of first-degree murder
- D. Only applicable if the driver was sober

Q9. What is required to prove intoxication manslaughter in some states?

- A. Proof of illegal substance use
- B. Proof of premeditation
- C. Proof that the person was intoxicated and drove in that state
- D. Proof of intent to kill

Q10. What is the typical penalty for second-degree manslaughter?

- A. Community service
- B. Prison or incarceration time, often with a fine
- C. A warning
- D. No penalty

Answer Key

1. Q1: B
2. Q2: C
3. Q3: C
4. Q4: A
5. Q5: C
6. Q6: B
7. Q7: C
8. Q8: B
9. Q9: C
10. Q10: B